  - A Briefer History of Time by Stephen Hawking

  - The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy Series by Douglas Adams
    - * I consider myself a seasoned reader. There is not another person, dead or alive, that could tell a satirical tragedy like Adams. He was truly a wordsmith and the main reason I became interested in physics. I frequently allude to his works and would consider him my favorite author.
  - The Complete Circle Series by Ted Dekker
  - Tales of the Lifesong by Greg Hamerton
  - Ender's Games Series & Bean Quartet by Orson Scott Card
    - * The Bean Quartet is superb. As a series, it is significantly better than the Ender's Series.
